THE ROYAL ECONOMIC SOCIETY

The ROYAL ECONOMIC SOCIETY (incorporated by Royal Charter, 1902) was founded, under the name of the BRITISH ECONOMIC ASSOCIATION, at a meeting held at University College London, on 20 November 1890, the Right Hon. G. J. Goschen, M.P. (Viscount Goschen), in the Chair.

The Society's objective is the general advancement of economic knowledge. Its principal activities are:

(a) The production of the ECONOMIC JOURNAL, which is sent six times a year to all members. The JOURNAL is intended to represent the various shades of economic opinion, and to be the organ, not of one school of economists, but of all. It numbers among its contributors the leading economists of all countries. The JOURNAL was, from 1891 to 1974 inclusive, published on behalf of the Society by Messrs. Macmillan and Co. Ltd, London, and from 1975 to 1986 by the Cambridge University Press. From 1987 it has been published by Blackwell Publishers Ltd.

(b) The publication of a quarterly Newsletter which contains information on conferences world-wide, news about research, information on visiting scholars and on scholarships, studentships and fellowships. The Newsletter also includes short lively articles on current economic issues and matters of general interest to economists.

(c) Publication of scholarly works which are normally offered for sale to members, for their personal use, at concessionary rates. These publications include, The Collected Writings of John Maynard Keynes; volumes of the writings of William Stanley Jevons, including some not previously published; and Piero Sraffa's edition of Works and Correspondence of David Ricardo.

(d) The arrangement of an Annual Conference.

(e) The organisation of a Conference of Heads of University Departments of Economics, to promote the study and teaching of economics in the United Kingdom, and to bring to the notice of outside bodies specific matters of concern to economists.

Applications for membership of the Society should be made as indicated on the inside front cover of each issue of the JOURNAL. Instructions concerning material for the ECONOMIC JOURNAL are given on the inside back cover of each issue. The Society's publications may be ordered through Eleanor Burke, London Business School, Sussex Place, Regent's Park, London NW1 4SA. All other enquiries should be sent to the Secretary-General, Professor Richard Portes, Department of Economics, London Business School, Sussex Place, Regent's Park, London NW1 4SA.
